

Building Use Policy

It is the intent of Metropolitan Community Church of Knoxville (MCCK) to make our facility available to the community to use for non-MCCK initiated meetings and special events. Below are the conditions and fees that apply to such use:

For members of Metropolitan Community Churches

1. Facility use is at no charge for members of Metropolitan Community Churches.
2. A $100 cleaning deposit is required at the time the member takes possession of the main building on the day of special events.
3. The cleaning fee will be refunded if the building is left in “as was” condition.

For Friends of the Congregation of MCCK and for non-profit civic groups

1. By prior arrangement and with approval of the Board of Directors, the facility will be made available to friends of MCCK and non-profit civic groups at no charge.
2. There is no cleaning deposit required for use of the facility for meetings, but those using this facility are asked to leave it in “as was” condition.
3. A $100 cleaning deposit is required at the time the friend or group takes possession of the main building on the day of special events.
4. The cleaning fee will be refunded if the building is left in “as was” condition.

For all others

1. There will be a fee of $150 for the use of the main building.
2. The fee for multi-day events will be determined by the Board of Directors at the time of any such request, with a minimum fee of $150 for the 1st day and a negotiated fee for any additional days requested.
3. A $100 cleaning deposit is required at the time the renter takes possession of the main building on the day of special events.
4. The cleaning fee will be refunded if the building is left in “as was” condition

For all users

1. The use of alcoholic beverages is not permitted in the building
2. The Electronic Media Policy does not apply to these events

MCCK reserves the right to refuse use to any individual or organization.
